TIMELY TRUTHS.

Uttered by the Country's Sage in Advocacy of the People's Party and its Doctrines.

Reform Must not Come From Those Who sit Serenely on the Social Mountain Tops.

The Necessity of Our Times is a Change of Administration in the Executive Offices.

Words of Wisdom from the Sage of Grammercy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The following is Mr. Tilden's response to the committee of the national democratic convention conveying to him the resolutions of that body:

GREYSTONE, Oct. 4, 1884.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee:

I thank you for your kind terms in which you have communicated the resolutions concerning me, adopted by the late national democratic convention. I share your conviction that reform in the administration of the federal government is our great national want, and is indeed essential to the restoration and preservation of the government itself, and can only be achieved through the agency of the democratic party and by installing its representatives in the chief magistracy of the United States. The noble historical traditions of the democratic party's principles, in which it was educated, and to which it has ever been in the main faithful; its freedom from corrupt influences which grow up in prolonged possession of power, and the nature of the elements which constitute it, all contribute to qualify it for that mission. The opposite characteristics and conditions which attach to the republican party, make it hopeless to expect that that party will be able to give a better government than the debasing system of abuses which, during its ascendency, has been infected in official and political life in this country. The democratic party had its origin in the efforts advanced by the patriots of the revolution to resist the perversion of our government from the ideal contemplated by the people. Among its conspicuous founders are Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Samuel Adams and John Hancock, of Massachusetts; George Clinton and Robert R. Livingston, of New York, and George Wythe and James Madison, of Virginia. From the election of Mr. Jefferson as president in 1800, for sixty years the democratic party mainly directed our national policy. It extended the boundaries of the republic and laid the foundations of all our national greatness, while it preserved the limitations imposed by the constitution and maintained a simple and pure system of domestic administration. On the other hand the republican party has always been dominated by principles which favor legislation for the benefit of particular classes at the expense of the body of the people. It has become deeply tainted with the abuses which naturally grow up during a long possession of unchecked power, especially in a period of civil war and false finance. The patriotic and virtuous elements in it are now unable to emancipate it from the sway of selfish interests which subordinate the public duty to personal greed. The most hopeful of the best citizens it contains despair of its amendment, except through its temporary expulsion from power. It has been boastingly asserted by a modern Massachusetts statesman, struggling to reconcile himself and his followers to its presidential candidate, that the republican party contains a disproportionate of the wealth, the culture and the intelligence of the country. The unprincipled Grafton, when taunted by James II., with his personal want of conscience, answered: "That is true, but I belong to a party that has a great deal of conscience." Such reasoners forget that the same claim has been made in all ages and countries by defenders of old wrongs against new reforms. It was alleged by the tories of the American revolution against the patriots of that day. It was repeated against Jefferson and afterwards against Jackson. It is alleged by the conservatives against those who, in England, are endeavoring to enlarge the popular suffrage. All history shows that reform in the government must not be from those who sit serenely on the social mountain tops, eyeing the benefits of the existing order of things. Even the Divine Author of our religion found his followers not among complacent Pharisees, but among the lowly-minded fishermen. The republican party is largely made up of those who live by their wits and who aspire to advantages over the rest of mankind. The democratic party consists largely of those who live by the work of their hands and whose political action is governed by their sentiments or imaginations. It results that the democratic party, more readily than the republican party, can be moulded to the support of the reform measures which are involved in a sacrifice of selfish interests. The indisputable necessity of our times is a change of administration in the great executive offices of the country. This, in my judgment, can only be accomplished by the election of the democratic candidates for president and vice-president.

(Signed) SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

To B. H. Henry, chairman, B. B. Smalley and others of the special committee of the democratic national convention.

Mutilated by Tigers.

WATERBURY, Ct., Oct. 8.—Richard Clark of Caledonia, Ontario, an employe of Forepaugh's circus, while opening a ventilator in a cage this morning had his hand seized by a tiger.

While trying to release himself he was seized by two tigers and dragged inside the cage. The animals were finally beaten off with iron bars after Clark's arms and legs had been horribly crushed and mutilated.

The Labor Question.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The federation of trades and labor unions continued in session this morning. A telegram from the New Jersey eight hour league, urging the federation to consider the eight hour system, was read and a reply returned that decided action would be taken. The legislative committee made an extensive report in which it was contended that strikes, when based on justice and conducted with discretion, served a good end, although beneficial results might not be immediately felt by those engaged in them. The strikes for the last four months numbered, in the United States, ninety-eight, affecting 53,000 employes. Of these strikes fifty had been against a reduction of wages and seven for an increase of wages. The committee reported in connection with the eight hour question that it had addressed the national committees of both republican and democratic parties, but had received no response. The committee believed it useless to wait for legislation and decided that a good result was only to be attained by thorough organization among working men. Adjourned until 6 o'clock.

Granted a Breathing Spell.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—The district court has ordered a stay in the proceedings in the case of Joseph Palmer, to be executed Friday for the murder of Kirk. A Shanty Blown Into the Lake.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The storm on Lake Michigan last night blew away a small shanty in which laborers were employed in Inlet Lake tunnel at Hyde Park where they lodged. It was set on piles in the lake about a mile from the shore. There were sixteen men in all employed in the inlet and by the carrying away of the shanty they were left clinging to stringers or beams in a most perilous position. One of the men came to the shore on a plank near South Chicago and it is feared others have been drowned. The life saving crew have gone to the rescue.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The life saving crew shortly before noon succeeded in throwing a line to the frail pier from which the shanty had been blown. The rescue of what remains of the party is almost certain unless they should in the meantime be overcome by exhaustion and cold. Eight figures can be distinguish through a field glass clinging to the pier, which together with one who floated ashore leaves seven unaccounted for and it is feared they have been lost.

LATER.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8, 2 p. m.—The life saving crew has succeeded in rescuing four persons and it is now known that of those on the frail pier when the storm burst upon them, 10 were drowned. The storm was one of great fury and blew up very suddenly.

Mexican Veterans.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8.—The Mexican veterans met at Pope's theatre this morning to attend the reunion which continues three days. About 200 delegates from various states are in attendance. In the absence of the president, James W. Denver, Gen. M. D. Manson, of Indiana, first vice president, called the reunion to order. The address of welcome was delivered by J. C. McGinnis, of St. Louis, and replied to by Acting President Manson. The roll call was postponed until to-morrow to await the arrival of veterans who are expected to-night. After the appointment of standing committees the convention adjourned to visit the Mechanic's exchange.

REMEMBER.

Democrats should remember that a change of residence from one precinct to another forfeits the right to vote at the coming elections. Last Saturday was the last day such changes could be made without forfeiting this right.

APRIL 29, 1875, the Indianapolis Journal, the republican organ of the state, had the following headlines on the first page:

CATTLE.

TRAMP! TRAMP! TRAMP! THE UNEXEMPT HORDES OF IRISH CATHOLICS ARE MARCHING TO INDIANAPOLIS.

THE record shows that Blaine voted to kill a resolution offered by Mr. Wood, democrat, on March 8, 1876, as follows (the Congressinal Globe, page 36):

Resolved, That this house extends its sympathy to the people of Ireland in their pending struggle for constitutional liberty. If the despotic governments of Europe shall be allowed to establish monarchial institutions in America, so should the United States foster and promote the extension of republican institutions in Europe."

ELOQUENT extract from Senator Logan's speech at the fair at Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 20, 1883, as reported in The Daily Gazette (republican paper) of that city Sept, 21, 1883:

"If anyone wishes to discuss the question whether patriotism exists, let him place an Englishman in any part of the world, in the remotest corner of the globe, and begin the strains of 'God Save the Queen,' and he is ready for anything. * * * Let an Irishman hear the 'Wearing of the Green,' and he is ready to fight while there is a drop of whisky around."

NORTH CAROLINA spent $725,000 last year on her public schools.

JOHN MCCULLOUGH, the unfortunate actor, is said to own property valued at $60,000.

THE area of the city of Philadelphia is 129 square miles. The area of the village of London is only 122 square miles.

CLEVELAND was good enough for Blaine when he was a candidate for governor against Folger. Circumstances alter cases with the Jingo.

THE Kansas City Star (independent) says that if Cleveland is a drunkard and debauchee the people of Buffalo never seem to have found it out.

THE editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat (republican) declares that 10,000 republican majority in Ohio next week will be tantamount to defeat.

"MY DEAR WILL—Do not delay in settling that school fund matter, for if not settled it will be used as a handle in this campaign.

W. H. CALKINS."

MR. CALKINS is not accompanied by his "Dear Will" on his canvass of the state. Neither is Mr. Blaine's presence enlivened by his "Dear Fisher."

THE Indianapolis News (republican) says that Calkins' canvass has not been remarkably brilliant, or entirely satisfactory to his enthusiastic admirers.

BLAINE has been driven into a corner on the Hocking Valley coal land affair, in which he declared he was never interested. It is now in order for him to explain, as he did in regard to the Little Rock railway affair after he had repeatedly denied his connection therewith.

VOTERS, remember that Calkins is the man who defrauded the school fund of the state out of $700 and who assessed a war widow postmistress $12 for campaign purposes. These facts are indisputable and they ought to down any man.

THE Gazette, with no scruples of honesty to guide it, continues to publish the assertion that Governor Gray was a member of a know-nothing lodge when its editor knows that it is false. One hundred and thirty-five reputable men swear to its falsity and yet the Gazette continues to circulate the lie.

THE Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette is in trouble. Its managers sold a column of space during the campaign to the independents, and now the friends of Blaine, who are readers of that paper, have raised a vigorous kick, while the independents threaten to sue for damages if their matter is not published. Between the two fires the good Deacon Smith is getting uncomfortably warm.

"THE business revival will begin if Blaine and Logan shall be elected," promises the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette. What is the matter with President Arthur? Have not the business interests of the country been as safe in his hands as they can be under Blaine? The trouble is that the republican party has not followed Arthur's advice, but sticks rigidly to its monopoly protective text.

JAY GOULD and Charles Francis Adams boast that the election of Blaine would boost Union Pacific stock, now quoted at 51 up to 75. There appears to be various channels in which Blaine can be exceedingly useful to railroad monopolists of the Jay Gould variety. It is not at all improbable, in view of this promised boom in the latter's favorite railroad securities, that he has made a generous subscription to the republican parrel.—Chicago Times.

YESTERDAY was a memorable day in the history of Fort Wayne. In witnessed the gathering of the representatives of the two great political parties in the state each cheering their leader in the duel of words. THE SENTINEL has no hesitancy in saying that each of the representatives of his party did himself honor in the contest. It was a war of eloquence, of oratory, of argument. Of its result, as is naturally the case, each party claims the victory. In all fairness and justice we concede that Mr. Calkins did all any man could do to hold forth the brightest side of his party's career, and he succeeded in arousing the enthusiasm of his followers. Colonel Gray is the equal of Mr. Calkins in oratory and ably and skillfull depicted the wrongs inflicted by unskillful legislation upon the people of this country.

$5,000,000 stolen from the savings of the "Wards of the Nation," in the Freedman's bank swindle.

100,000 bales of cotton stolen by the cotton ring.

$150,000,000 per year stolen by the whiskey thieves under the $2 tax and the swindles have continued ever since by connivance of republican internal revenue officers.

$1,250,000 fraudulently awarded by the republican commission in the Venezuella swindle.

Millions stolen by conspiracy and fraudulent bids in the star routes. Geo. Bliss and other counsel employed for nearly a year at $100 per day each, and $1,000,000 expended in mock trials without any conviction of the ring conspirators, prominent leaders in the republican party.

Discrepancies in finance reports amounting to $247,000,000.

Erasures and alterations in treasury ledgers to the number of 2,500.

In hundred of instances where Hot Springs and other treatment failed to cure scrofula and syphilitic disorders, the sufferer has sought and found a cure in Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. It enriches the blood, strengthens the urinary and digestive organs and quickly removes all indications of ill health and blood disease, from a pimple to a running sore, from a headache to a rheumatic pain. Its superiority over all other blood purifiers and strengthening medicines is admitted by all who test its curative effect and influence.

THE LIE NAILED.

The charge has been made and repeated that Col. I. P. Gray, the democratic nominee for governor, was a member of a know-knothing lodge. The statement has been refuted by almost numberless affidavits from persons who knew Mr. Gray at that time and who swear to the falsity of the charge. From among these we select the following, which could be supplemented by many others, in order to show the unfairness of certain republican papers which continue to print the libel. Comment on the course of these papers is useless. They distort the truth and continue to publish what they know to be lies, which have been proven such time and again, showing the desperation to which they have been driven:

The State of Ohio, Darke county, ss:

Personally appear before me Andrew Zeek, Eli Smelter, Michael Zeek, William Hindsley, Daniel M. Wilt, John Wiest, R. F. Hagerman, Tunis Ullum, Eli Harter and Michael Noggle, who being each duly sworn according to law, deposeth and saith that they and each of them reside in the town of New Madison, or its immediate vicinity in Darke county, state of Ohio, and have so continuously resided there since 1844, and a part thereof long before; that they and each of them are personally and intimately acquainted with Isaac P. Gray, present democratic candidate for governor of the state of Indiana and have been so acquainted with said Isaac P. Gray since 1844, and a part of affiants for a much longer period; that said Isaac P. Gray, to our knowledge during the years 1854, 1855 and 1856, was known and recognized as an anti-slavery man and republican; that he ardently supported Salmon P. Chase for governor of the state of Ohio while residing here; that during 1856 said Isaac P. Gray was not a resident of New Madison, Ohio, but of Union City, Ind., at which place he has resided ever since; that in the presidential contest of 1856 said Isaac P. Gray was a supporter of John C. Fremont, the republican candidate for president; that they, affiants, never heard it intimated that said Isaac P. Gray was a know-nothing or belonged to such an order until affiants heard of or saw the publication of the same in the Indianapolis Journal of September 9, 1884; that affiants have always known the said Isaac P. Gray as an honorable man of irreproachable moral character, and should he be elected governor of the state of Indiana will, in our judgment, honestly and impartially discharge the duties of his office to the net uralized foreign born and native citizens equally and alike; that the parties who signed the several affidavits contained in the Indianapolis Journal of September 19, 1884, in relation to said Gray's connection with said order are all ultra republicans and active politicians for what they are worth in the support of James G. Blaine for president.

GENERAL GRANT, being requested to serve as a republican candidate for presidential elector, declined on the grounds that he was "out of politics." The number of republicans who are "out of politics" this year is really astonishing.

Nothing Made in Vain.

We are told that nothing was made in vain; but what can be said of the fashionable girl of the period? Isn't she maiden vain? Hood's Sarsaparilla is made in Lowell, Mass., where there are more bottles of it sold than of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier, and it is never taken in vain. It purifies the blood, strengthens the system and gives new life and vigor to the entire body. 100 doses $1.

Attend Pierr's Millinery opening today.

Advices from the Connecticut election indicate that the amendment was carried by about 15,000 majority.

THE CITY.

Murray's shops were closed yesterday.

The Simpson M. E. church is to have a new bell.

The M. E. college is in session with ninety students.

A. Dukeman is again in possession of his Calhoun street saloon.

Superintendent Law left last night on the limited for Philadelphia.

Superintendent O'Rourke went to Grand Rapids this morning.

Several fights occurred last night and black eyes are fashionable to-day.

George Sweringen, of Chicago, is the guest of his brother Dr. Sweringen.

Editor Mitchell's Dispatch will hereafter be issued from the Foster block.

Mrs. Lax. Hirsh has returned to her home in Layfayette after visiting in this city.

A. D. Cressler, of the Murray manufacturing company went to Chicago last night.

The new bell for the Simpson M. E. church arrived yesterday. Its weight is 600 pounds.

W. E. McDermut and T. J. Logan reported the joint debate for the Indianapolis Sentinel.

Complaints are still made that the Calhoun street railway crossing is not sufficiently lighted.

John Brennen was fined for drunkenness at police court this morning. Brennen is a stranger here.

The receipts of the Pittsburg freight office in this city for the month of September amounted to $68,096.

Says the Huntington News, (republican): "Talk about St. John men all you want, but Huntington county has a few."

A son of John B. Fox fell from a hickory tree yesterday and may be a cripple for life if he recovers from his injuries at all.

Several strangers had their pocketbooks stolen by the slick fingered gentry last night. Only small amounts of money were taken.

Hon. F. C. McNutt, who made a great democratic speech here last night, is a resident of Terre Haute and one of the brightest lawyers in the state.

Senator Daniel W. Voorhees and Hon. F. C. McNutt left the city last night and Hon. Isaac P. Gray and Hon. James H. Rice left here for Indianapolis this morning.

Last night Harry Hammill received a telegram from Elmira, N. Y., announcing the death of his aged mother. Mr. Hammill left on the first train for New York.

For a few days ugly rumors have been afloat that John Crow, the well known carpenter, had attempted suicide at Chicago. His relatives telegraphed Mr. Crow, who indignantly denies the slanderous stories.

Ellen Curtiss who lives at the corner of DeWald and Clinton streets, was before Esquire Ryan to-day charged with poisoning chickens belonging to Samuel Hoffman. The poisoning is said to have occurred yesterday.

A man named John Meyers, from Ossian, claimed his watch was stolen by a thief last night. Meyers made a great kick but his ticker responded not. Meyers was with a party of republicans at the time of the theft.

The statement is made upon good authority that the republican procession doubled on Jefferson street last night in order to make as big a show as possible. That is, the front of the column marched around a square and fell in at the rear again.

Wm. Humbert and Emma Menzie were not out viewing the democratic procession last night but locked themselves in Emma's snug apartments. Officer Trautman could not bear the unpatriotic business and promptly arrested the couple who were find for their illicit love this morning by Mayor Zollinger.

Yesterday Wilhelmina C. Bruner and George Huser were married at the residence of the bride on Lavina street. Miss Bruner is quite a charming Fort Wayne lady and Mr. Huser is from Detroit, but a brother of the well known Broadway boot and shoe merchant. Mr. and Mrs. Huser left last night for Detroit where they will permanently reside.

Finis Cartwright, of Olds' wagon works, is a disappointed man. Last night he had his residence, on Lewis street, nicely illuminated and was careful to hide all the decorations when the democratic column passed. As soon as it was passed he again let the decorations shine forth in all their glory, but the republicans failed to show up and his work was for naught.

ALL ABLAZE.

A Grand Demonstration in Honor of the Two Political Leaders of the State—The Streets Ablaze with Illuminations—Eloquent Orations.

The ignominious defeat of Major Calkins in the joint debate with Col. Isaac P. Gray, yesterday afternoon, was the topic of conversation on the streets and in the hotels last night. Democrats were jubilant and republicans tried to atone for the inability of Calkins to cope with Gray on the ground "that he did not know what Gray would say." The major's fine face and voluptuous figure could not answer the piercing truths that fell like pearls from the lips of the democratic leader. Neither could a vigorous waving of that dirty old garment, the bloody shirt, atone for the iniquities of republican mal-administration, for closed work shops, impoverished people, wrecked banks and penniless depositors. Said Colonel Gray, in his final speech, "when there are panics on Wall street and the stock gamblers and thieving speculators are crumbling under their own double-edged weapons, we find the republican secretaries of the United States treasury there offering them consolation and millions of the people's money. When," said Colonel Gray, "this country suffered from a panic and the homes of poor people were being sold under the mortgages held by eastern capitalists, did the republican secretary of the treasury come to their assistance and save their homes from wreck? No, he was saving stock gamblers from ruin." Colonel Gray was loudly cheered at the close of his speech and hundreds of his admirers rushed forward to congratulate him.

The republicans proudly boasted that they would recover themselves in the evening, but at last accounts they were still boasting and that was the size of their evening boast. The rival processions began to form at 7 o'clock and at 7:30 o'clock the pageants moved slowly away to the time of music and the beat of drum. The democratic hosts moved east to Barr street, south on Barr to Lewis, east on Lewis to Harmer, north on Harmer to Jefferson, west on Jefferson to Rockhill, north on Rockhill to Washington, east on Washington to Calhoun, north on Calhoun to Berry and east on Berry to Academy of Music where Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees spoke. The house was already packed, so the clubs countermarched and assembled in the north yard of the court house, where Hon. F. C. McNutt addressed the assembled hosts.

In the democratic ranks were about 1,024 voters. The republicans marshaled 664 by actual count, and even the accomplished artist of the Gazette will not make affidavit that there were fifty more in the Blaine line. All along the line of march mapped out by the democrats and advertised by THE SENTINEL, residences were beautifully illuminated and in many instances the heavens were made bright as day by red, white and blue lights. Ladies cheered and were complimented by the gallant democrats who were enthusiastic and flushed with the towering victories of the joint debate and parade. Allen county did herself proud again last night and re-established her claim to the democratic banner of Indiana. The republicans were defeated, out cheered, out generaled, out numbered and out ridden. They are buried beyond recovery and THE SENTINEL wants to ring the funeral bell softly, there is crape on their door.

FLOODS OF ORATORY.

Seldom if ever have the people of this city and surrounding country listened to such an oratorical display and such presentation of unanswerable arguments as that afforded them by democratic orators last evening. Senator Voorhees, the eloquent Hoosier statesman, addressed an audience at the Academy of Music which was only limited by the capacity of the building. There was no standing room unoccupied, not a seat but which held a person who listened to the well chosen words of a man whom the people of Indiana delight to honor. In a clear voice and with great precision he pictured the issues of this campaign and graphically illustrated the unstatesmanlike course of the nominee of the republican party. He dealt unsparing blows upon the fruits of republican legislation and held up the condition of the country to view. His speech was such an effort that Senator Voorhees alone can deliver and was a master piece.

But this was not the limit of the oratorical efforts of the evening. The crowds of people unable to gain admission to the academy heard the eloquent Hon. C. F. McNutt, who addressed an overflow meeting in the court house yard, from a hastily devised stand erected on the north side. Here the truth was told in language unmistakable and cold, unanswerable facts were stored in the minds of the people. There was no ranting, no demagogism, but there was a forcible presentation of republican misrule and the reasons and arguments why Mr. Blaine should not be chosen to represent a great people.

The speeches were both masterly in effect and did much good for the democracy. THE SENTINEL regrets that its space precludes a full report of both efforts. Both were well worthy of the men and of the occasion.

NOTES.

Calkin's name is "Dennis."

Columbia City sent in two handsome clubs.

Hurrah for Colonel Gray, the hero of the day.

The democratic cavalry parade was a great feature.

The Jeffersonian club was out 560 strong last nisght.

Carry the news to Cleveland—Fort Wayne is still at home.

The Gazette says democrats pulled a flag from a wagon last night. There is no democrat in the United States who would be guilty of such a contemptible trick.

The Gazette howls, whines and lies in one breath this morning.

The railroad boys carried lanterns in the democratic procession.

Wanted—A slicker man to manage the republican campaign here.

Will some one please drape Calkins and the Gazette in mourning?

The local democratic clubs escorted the visitors to the depots last night.

Republican mugwumps were about last night begging democrats not to cheer.

The report that Mr. Calkins took to the woods is probably without foundation.

The republicans were routed out of their headquarters last night by democratic cheers.

Democratic transparency; "'Tell the truth.'—Grover Cleveland. 'Burn this.' —James G. Blaine."

The Gazette styles republicans who try to ape the Jeffersonians "Mugwumps." This is hard.

THE SENTINEL was given cheer after cheer last night as the democratic hosts passed its illuminated building.

The republican ping hat foundlings did not come withing 300 of the Jeffersonians. Ring up more foundlings.

Three hearty cheers were given for Wm. Keough, chairman of the democratic county central committee, last night.

The republicans called recruits from Van Wert, Ohio, and then could not touch the democratic pageant in size.

Strayed—One W. H. Calkins. He was last seen in the court house yard in the afternoon. He is mashed on his shape and easily identified.

The democratic procession was fifty-eight minutes in passing the corner of Calhoun and Berry street. The republicans passed the same corner in twenty-three minutes.

Lost—The republican party; it mingled in the crowd last night and has not been seen since, any information concerning its whereabouts will be tearfully received at the post office.

Councilman Herman Michael, the real estate agent and chicken fancier, carried a lantern in the alleged crowd of railroad men who paraded with the republicans. Michael was never on top of a freight car in his life.

Some of the democratic transparancies read: "I see various channels in which I know I can be useful;" "I shall not be a dead head in the enterprise, J. G. B.;" "Burn this;" "George Washington—jim blaine—it won't do;" "Protect our school fund."

Among the homes of democrats brilliantly illuminated last night may be mentioned the residences of Andrew F. Glutting, Henry C. Graffe, Milton N. Webber, Al. Friend, Wm. Lyne and Fred Weichman. Other homes were tastily illuminated but names could not be obtained.

Pittsburg passenger train No. 1 was an hour late to-day, owing to a wreck east.

Mrs. John Reifenberick, of Huntington, is in the city the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hench.

Wood is scarce hereabouts and heavy dealers have fire timber shipped here from abroad.

Willis D. Maier was some worse last night, but is reported better to-day. His daughter is also quite ill.

Richmond Palladium: "Mrs. L. M. Ninde, of Fort Wayne, after brief visits with Richmond friends, returned home this afternoon."

Mr. and Mrs. Conley, of Ada, Ohio, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Doyle, of this city, returned to their home this afternoon.

After the race between "Billy F." and "Daisy Scott" next Saturday, a party of ladies will put a nice wreath of flowers about the winner's neck.

J. T. Twomy, night operator of the Pittsburg road at Arcola, accidentally sent a load of shot into his right arm yesterday while out hunting. Dr. W. H. Meyers, of this city, went out to dress the wound.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by clearing weather; decided fall in temperature; higher barometer.

Workmen are to-day laying pipes to the St. Joe river, on the banks of which a well will be sunk. The owners of the water right in the river refuse to accept the amount of money awarded them by the city commissioners and the question of damages will be settled in the courts.

Last night two burly republican ruffians struck Tom Toomey for asserting that he was an Irishman and a democrat. The cowardly whelps do not live here and put up bail which they forfeited at police court this morning. Mr. Toomey has never quarreled with a man in his life.

The arguments on the motion to suspend sentence in the case of Charles W. Butler, the wife murderer, condemned to hang on Friday, began in the supreme court at Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. The question is upon the constitutionality of the law giving power to the supreme court to grant a reprive. No decision has yet been reached.

A leading New York physician says that three-fourths of the deaths during this trying weather are due to diseases of the lungs. Take warning and secure at once a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, a sure cure for all lung troubles.

INDEPENDENT RALLY.

Hon. Lucius B. Swift to Address the People of Fort Wayne To-Night—S. M. Foster Espouses Democracy.

This evening Hon. Lucius B. Swift, leader of the independent republicans of Indiana, will address the people of Fort Wayne on the political issues of the day. Samuel M. Foster, a life long republican and a leading dry goods merchant of this city, will also speak and give his reasons for not now espousing the principles of the republican party. Rev. W. N. Webbe, a leading republican and a distinguished minister of the Episcopal church, will introduce Mr. Swift, and Mr. Henry G. Olds, a leading manufacturer and life long republican, will preside at the meeting. The Jeffersonian club will escort Messrs. Swift and Foster to the Academy of Music, which will no doubt be packed by honest voters who desire to listen to men with the courage to express their honest convictions, no matter who they hit or whom they hurt. Leading independent republicans will be on the stage and the grandest independent rally of the campaign will occur.

Nervous debility, indicated by loss of memory, universal lassitude, constant fatigue, vivid dreaming, unnatural excitements, fits of dizziness, etc., is quickly cured by using Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. This remedy purifies the blood, strengthens the weak portions of the body, quiets the nerves, produces dreamless slumber, and is the only remedy that permanently cures the many distressful ailments resulting from nervous debility.

Everybody's Harvest.

Pierr's Fair, 60, Calhoun street, have opened the fall season with the most complete line of fall and winter goods in the city, they are therefore now prepared to show to the public the choicest and best goods for the least money. It is impossible to give full details of the many bargains they are offering in their lines of dry goods, notions and millinery; but we can safely state that one visit to their establishment and an examination of prices will convince the most sanguine that their prices are the lowest. Their millinery department, as everybody knows, is the most popular in the city. And as they are receiving daily new goods, their stock is always alive with the latest novelties. Together with these advantages for every fifty cents worth purchased you receive a free ticket on the plush parlor suit to be given away at PIERR'S FAIR,

Maine Heard From!

The Maine question is now answered as to the most durable shoe for children.

The "little ones" take about twenty steps to an adult one. It is no surprise that the restless feet soon kick their way out.

Parents are in constant trouble about how to keep their children's feet neatly clad, unless they belong to the happy throng who turn these cares over to W. H. Fleming who always carries a large stock in a specialty for children that is neat, and very durable, in button or lace, light or heavy, heel or no heel. DYSPEPSIA

Causes its victims to be miserable, hopeless, confused, and depressed in mind, very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for dyspepsia, from which I have suffered two years. I tried many other medicines, but none proved so satisfactory as Hood's Sarsaparilla." THOMAS COOK, Brush Electric Light Co., New York City.

Sick Headache

"For the past two years I have been afflicted with severe headaches and dyspepsia. I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have found great relief. I cheerfully recommend it to all." MRS. E. F. ANNABLE, New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Mary C. Smith, Cambridgeport, Mass., was a sufferer from dyspepsia and sick headache. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it the best remedy she ever used.

The blessings of life are many. Live long and be happy. Don't neglect a cough or cold. Keep yourself well clothed in changeable weather, and always keep a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in the household. A single spoonful will cure an ordinary cough or cold. Its continued use will cure consumption.

Call and see the French Patterns at Pierr's.

Twenty years is a good long time, and during all that period John Williams, of Eustis, Orange county, Florida, was suffering from rheumatism in a most acute form. Nothing appeared to do him any good until he saw in a newspaper an account of a marvelous cure wrought by Athlophoros, the great specific for all rheumatic and neuralgic disorders. Before he commenced its use he could scarcely walk, so fearfully were the knee joints swollen, but now he has no use for his canes and walks with perfect freedom. "I will not be without it again," writes the happy man.

The hats at Pierr's opening surpass any ever seen in beauty.

SUDDEN CHANGES.

Changes of temperature are apt to occasion dangerous affections; in the full blooded, apoplexy is to be feared. All, both young and aged, should have BRANDRETH'S PILLS ready; they are never failing. When you have pain in the head, are dizzy, feverish, rheumatic, or otherwise affected, take from three to ten, according to bulk of individual. In twenty-four hours, or less time, you will be content. Constitutions are much alike. Vertigo, dizziness, and pain can come only when impurity in the blood is too much for "the life" in us to carry without a struggle that BRANDRETH'S PILL aid, and no mistakes are made when you merely take away impurities from the blood.
